

1 Command Line References

Command	Description
df	free space on disk
free	free memory
cal	calender
date	date and time
pwd	print working directory
cd	change directory
ls	list directory contents
la (ls -a)	shows all contents of the directory including hidden files file	determine file type and presents a brief description of the contents less	view file contents, allows for a preview of file contents

Shortcut	Description
cd -	Goes to last working directory cd username	Goes to the home directory of username

Flags	Long Flag	Purpose
-l		changes output to long format
-a	-all	lists all files including hidden ones
-d	-directory	Displays details about the directory itself, rather than it's contents
-F	-classify	appends an indicator character to the end of each file listed
-h	-human-readable	displat file sizes in human-readable format rather than bytes
-r	-reverse	Display results in reverse order
-S		Sort results by file size
-t		Sort by modification times

1.1 Other Useful Info

~	this is a useful shortcut to get to the home directory
---	--